www.fullyfunded.info

Are you a young individual aged 18 to 26 with a passion for creating positive change in your community? MCW Globalâ??s 2024 Young Leaders Fellowship might be your opportunity to drive local change globally. This unique year-long leadership initiative is open to young people from around the world, equipping them with the skills, global citizenship awareness, and visionary thinking necessary to make a difference in the fields of education, health, and economic security.

The 2024 Young Leaders Fellowship in New York comprises

1. Community Needs Assessment (Virtual) â?? 1 Month : The program kicks off with a one-month virtual Community Needs Assessment, bringing together young leaders from diverse backgrounds worldwide. During this phase, participants gain crucial insights into the specific needs of their local communities, setting the stage for effective action.

2.Vision Planning & Project Development (In-Person) â?? 10 Days : Following the virtual assessment, participants come together for a 10-day in-person training program. Here, they refine their ideas for addressing community issues and transform their passion into a concrete action plan. This phase includes inspiring speakers, engaging workshops, events, and collaborative group work that help participants understand their role in global change.

3.Project Implementation & Alumni Mentorship (Virtual) â?? 10 Months : The final phase focuses on the execution of action plans. Young Leaders are paired with alumni mentors who offer guidance throughout the year. These mentors have graduated from the program and provide invaluable support through quarterly â??hangoutsâ?• and ongoing communication. They undergo specialized training to foster team-building and cultural understanding among the diverse group of Young Leaders.
