Is this scholarship fully funded or tuition-only?

The Mozilla Foundation Fellowship is a fully funded professional fellowship, not a tuition-only scholarship. It provides a financial stipend and a dedicated project budget for selected fellows.

- Embedded Fellows: $100,000 ($75,000 stipend + $25,000 project budget).
- Independent Fellows: $125,000 ($100,000 stipend + $25,000 project budget).

The funding supports fellows in developing technology projects that benefit the public. It does not cover university tuition fees because this is not a degree programme.

Which nationalities and study levels are eligible?

Nationalities: The Mozilla Foundation Fellowship 2027â??2028 is open to applicants worldwide. Applicants do not need to be US citizens or permanent residents. However, they must be legally eligible to receive fellowship funding in their country of residence.

www.fullyfunded.info

Study Levels: This is a professional fellowship, not a university degree scholarship. It is suitable for:

- Early-career professionals and technology builders.
- Experienced researchers and innovators.
- Established technology leaders.
- Entrepreneurs and independent project developers.
- Students who can meet the fellowshipâ??s project and participation requirements.

Important: There is no specific Bachelorâ??s, Masterâ??s or PhD requirement. Current students can apply if they can fulfil the 12-month fellowship commitments.

Is university admission required before the scholarship application?

No. University admission is not required because the Mozilla Foundation Fellowship is a professional fellowship, not a university degree programme. Applicants can apply directly through the official online application portal without receiving an admission offer from a university.

Both students and working professionals are eligible to apply, provided they can fulfil the 12-month fellowship commitments and project requirements.

What is the exact deadline and timezone?

The application deadline is 17 December 2026 at 11:59 PM Pacific Standard Time (PST, UTCâ??8). In Sri Lanka, this is 18 December 2026 at 12:29 PM.

Is there an application fee?

No. The Mozilla Foundation Fellowship 2027â??2028 does not list an application fee. Applicants can submit their Letter of Intent directly through the official online application portal without paying an application charge
